PREFACE

"And death hath come upon our Fathers; nevertheless we know them; for a Book of Remembrance we have written among us, according to the pattern given by the finger of God. "

Pearl of Great Price--Moses 6:45-46

To various members of the family who have so generously helped in preparing these records I wish to express my gratitude for their courtesy and hope they will find reward and satisfaction in seeing their line of descent traced and preserved for future generations.

The Compiler, and all concerned with this Publication, are deeply indebted to all that give time and labor in Genealogy work:

How the Anderson Reunions Were Started

After Jan. 8, 1948 the date of Betsey Maryann Anderson Ross (Anne) death, Marie took over her mother's Genealogy and Temple work. In Annie's prayers she would ask to be able to finish her work. We called the Temple and found she still had names there to be done. Marie told her mother not to worry about her work any more, that she would see that all names she had would be done. Later (Will) William Hakan Anderson came to Salt Lake City to live. He and Marie worked together. Will took care of the Temple work up to the time of his death; Marie did the gathering of the names. They both worked hard on research.

As they gathered the names of our dead, they said wouldn't it be nice if we could get all of our relatives together. So they talked this over with Aunt Clarice and decided to surprise Uncle Albert by having a Reunion on his 80th birthday, May 11, 1951, held in L. D. S. 21st Ward, 1st Ave. & K Street. The Hakan Anderson Family was then organized, William Hakan Anderson President, Uncle Albert Honorary President. 2nd Reunion 26 July 1952 Liberty Park, S. L. C., Utah. Will died 1953. 3rd Reunion at Jordan Park 25 July 1953, Karl Magleby President conducted. Bryant Anderson reminded us of Uncle John in his white apron throwing on the hamburgers which we had with corn on the cob. The count of 92 attended. The 4th was held at Liberty Park 11 June 1955 Uncle Albert presiding, Ruby Woodard Sandberg conducting. The 5th was held in Mesa, Arizona 1957. Uncle Hakan Anderson Family presided and conducted. Wilda Farley Merrill and husband took care of the eats and was it good, Bar-b-que beef.

BIOGRAPHY OF HAKAN ANDERSON SR.
Born 4 May 1822 Sweden

Hakan Anderson, son of Anders Olson and Bengta Arnesson, born in Horrod Chirstianstags, Sweden, 4 May 1822. Married Mariane Marie Nielsen, born 7 May 1833, Birkerod, Frdrks, Denm.

Hakan's father was a farmer and horse trainer in good circumstances, training horses for the King, a nobleman of Sweden. He died when Hakan was 8 years old. He lived on in the Nobleman's employ as he had a son the same age as Hakan. They grew up together, as they both loved horses.

When Hakan was eighteen, the nobleman decided to travel and Hakan accepted the position as valet to his Highness. They extensively toured through Norway, Sweden, Germany, Austria, Egypt, France, etc. for several years. Then he returned with the nobleman to Sweden, but had only been there a short time when he accepted a position in Copenhagen, Denmark as Manager and Interpreter of the docks and shipyards, where he was employed until he came to America.

While in Copenhagen he met Mariane Marie and they fell in love and were married 14 Sept. 1853 by Worsey Priest of the Lutheran Church.

In Copenhagen the Missionaries of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints taught them the Gospel. He accepted and was baptized 14 April 1854 by Hans Jensen. Mariane Marie was baptized 22 May 1858. Their home became the Elders' headquarters.

With a family of four, Oscar, Elnora, Hakan and Augusta, they left Copenhagen in March 1862 with a company of Latter-day Saints to Liverpool where they joined other saints and embarked on a large sailboat called the "Electric." While aboard ship, baby Augusta died of a children's disease and was put in a box and sunk in the ocean. For six weeks they sailed westward to America where they landed at Castle Garden, New York City. Here they were detained awhile, preparing for transportation. They then travelled by rail to Omaha, Nebraska, where they waited for an emigrant oxtrain from Utah. While in Omaha Hakan borrowed from the emigrant fund enough money to buy two cows, which were worked at intervals across the plains when the oxen tired out. The emigrants were divided off into groups for each wagon.

Albert Schels, a mess mate of John Felshaw, were the group that Hakan and family were with coming across the plains to Salt Lake City. They arrived at the church house Sept. 4th, 1862. Hakan was sent to Fillmore, Utah to run a grist mill, but dust from the grain gave him asthma. Then they moved to Deseret, Utah, where the saints were building a dam and settling that county for farming. They had been working on the dam for a long time. The dam just wouldn't hold. Hakan told them how the docks were built in his native land to keep the Ocean out, so they tried it and it stayed; it's called the Anderson dam.

This was the time of the Civil War in the United States and of Johnson's army in Utah. Wheat was five dollars a bushel and hard to secure. The men took turns at night standing guard against the Indians in Black Hawk War, so the families suffered great privations living on greasewood greens and bran bread for several weeks. It became so trying to live in Deseret that the family moved to Meadow, Utah. Hakan was sent to Cove Fort to help build the fort. They were having a hard time to make the doboys stick together and drying out falling apart, so again he told them how they did in his native land of Sweden and Denmark, and the work went on to finish. He went back to his family in Deseret, where they farmed and peddled to Pioche. Later they moved to Dry Creek, two miles south of Meadow, where they homesteaded a farm which in time made a very comfortable home. He got money to buy a store in 1871 and ran the Co-operated Store at Kanosh from 1881 to 1883.

Hakan was a High Priest in Kanosh, Millard County, Utah. Set apart for Mission 9 April 1883 by Jacob Gates. Missionary Record Book B pg 70, line 2750. Baptized 14 April 1854 by Hans Jensen. He gathered Genealogy while in Sweden. He returned home ill and died shortly afterward. His wife Mariane Marie lived until 11 Feb. 1901. Both were buried in Anderson Cemetery, Dry Creek, Meadow, Millard, Utah.

BIOGRAPHY OF MARIANE MARIE NIELSEN ANDERSON

"Ye mothers of those rudely wrought frontiers,
Ye are the pioneers that blazed the way,
Without your hearts of gold, your spirits
dauntless bold,
The West would be a wilderness today.
Where once ye tracked the burning desert
sands,
Now smiles fair gardenlands, streams
crystal clear.
Ye made the desert blossom as the rose,
Ye mothers of the sturdy pioneers."
H. S. Auerback.

Even the poet cannot express fully the heroism and majesty of those pioneer women for they could not give more than they did, a life of unstinted devotion and service. Among those noble characters was Mariane Marie Nielsen Anderson, a native of the sturdy Northland, a convert to an unpopular religion, a faithful wife, a mother of eleven children, an immigrant to a strange land, and a pioneer into the undeveloped western part of that country.

Mariane Marie was born the seventh of May, 1833 in Ravnsnaes in Birkerod Parish, Fredricksburg Amt, Sjælland, Denmark, the eighth child of a family of nine. Her parents were in good circumstances until her father's health failed. He was then an invalid for many years, and became so reduced in means that the children had to be placed out in different positions to help earn a livelihood. Yet they were cheerful and courageous and maintained strong family ties, often meeting in their home with their friends in song, games, and dancing. A strange violin on a wooden show was contrived to use in making music for their dancing.

There was compulsory education in Denmark, even in those days, at least until the students could read and write and say the Lutheran catechism. They were kept in school until the Lutheran priest as the examiner passed them and could discontinue school. She satisfactorily passed at the age of fourteen. Another type of education was emphasized. She had been placed at thirteen as a cook's aid in a rich home. Now she was through school, she spent the major part of her time in this training. She so qualified as a cook that at the age of sixteen she was given complete charge of the cooking for four years, or until her marriage. In this position she learned many valuable things about food. Especially did she become gifted as a bread maker, for in this she could rival a professional baker. She learned also to cure and cook meats as efficiently as the modern packers. This art she used to a good purpose in the early days of Utah, for she cured meat to sell. She also made many barrels of preserves out of fruit and molasses, which were sold on the market in exchange for such articles as seed, lumber, furniture, etc. Throughout all her life she was an outstanding cook and could prepare a good meal out of very indifferent food. One lady told me of seeing her prepare and of eating with her an excellent Sunday dinner. When she saw her get the food to prepare dinner from, she wondered whatever could she do with those little green potatoes, spareribs, etc.; but to her surprise Mrs. Anderson charmed that food into delicacies. This ability as a cook, she taught her daughters, and they, too, are excellent cooks.

The Lutheran Church was the state religion of Denmark. Mariane Marie was a member of this sect, and while attending church she met Hakan Anderson. They learned to love each other, and after a happy courtship, they were married September 14, 1853 by Rev. Worsey, a priest of the Lutheran Church. She loved her husband with a strength few women possess. In fact, this great adoration was a beautiful idol in her life. We might speak of this love as Apostle Paul classifies charity:

"Love suffereth long and is kind,
 Love rejoices not in iniquity, but rejoices
 in the truth.
 Love beareth all things; believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.
 Love never faileth."

Hakan Anderson, her husband, was eleven years her senior. He was a native of Sweden, and a travelled and cultured man. In Copenhagen, Denmark, he held a substantial position as manager of the dock and shipyards, and as inspector of ships. This was a responsible office and paid a good salary, so they were in good circumstances and had many comforts.

Mr. Anderson came in contact with the Elders from the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in his ship inspection duties. They were such powerful elders as Amasa Lyman and Benjamin Cluff. He invited them to his home. At first his wife did not take kindly to this, but she later became an ardent believer. Her husband was baptized April 14, 1854, and she became a baptized member three years later, 20 May 1858. (Missionary Rec. Book B, Page 70, line 2750, Hakan Baptized 14 April 1854 by Hans Jensen.)

The Anderson home, from the time her husband was a convert, was made the headquarters for the elders, who conducted a school there for teaching the English language and the Gospel. Mr. Anderson learned to speak, read, and write this language in the old country in the school at their home. But his wife did not progress very far as she was so occupied in caring for her three children, and making preparations for a fourth child that she could not give enough time to study.

Her husband was kind and spoke to her in English and helped her all he could to learn the language, but she could not speak much English until after she had lived in America. Even then she always had a broken pronunciation. For instance, she called chicken, "kicken" except when she was vexed, then she could say chicken as plainly as anyone.

She did not learn to read English until in her old age. At that time she was living with her daughter, Mary Magleby, who had been a school teacher and whose husband was a school superintendent at that time. This daughter taught her to read from her children's baby books, and from primers and first readers in the home. In a month of daily study, Mrs. Anderson could read the English newspapers to her great comfort. As long as her husband lived, she had looked to him to read to her. He was a great reader and would read aloud and she would listen while she did knitting, sewing, or darning. She did not have many Danish books, but as soon as a Danish newspaper could be secured in America, she subscribed and had it in the home many years. But when she learned to read English herself that was more satisfactory as she could read the later news and be independent.

In Denmark, after the Andersons became members of the Church, Mr. Anderson lost favor with the Danish government officials. They did not like his affiliation with the Mormons and he lost his job at the docks in Copenhagen, a position he had held in honor sixteen years. That was not her only trial because as soon as she became a Latter-day Saint, her relatives whom she loved turned against her.

In those days, gathering to Zion was taught the converts. Shortly after both the Andersons joined the church, they began making preparations to immigrate to America. With a family of four, they left Copenhagen, April 14, 1862 with a company of Latter Day Saints for Liverpool, where they joined other Saints and embarked on a large sailboat called the "Electric." Mr. Anderson was placed in charge of the Scandinavians. They were all kind to Mrs. Anderson and the children. Even the Captain sent extra dainties to her cabin. All this was appreciated for a great sorrow came to her on the water. While aboard the ship, Baby Augusta, a child nearing two years, died of a children's disease that was epidemic on the vessel. She was put in a casket, made by the captain, and sunk in the sea. For seven weeks, they sailed westward on a rough ocean to America, where they landed at Castle Gardens, New York City, New York.

Here the Latter-day Saint passengers from four sailing vessels were detained awhile preparing for transportation to the West. While waiting, Mr. Anderson sent means ahead to buy a team to have purchased and ready for him when he should arrive at the railway terminal. After this delay in New York, they travelled by rail to Florence, Nebraska, where they waited for an immigrant train from Utah. While in Nebraska, Mr. Anderson borrowed enough money from the Church immigrant fund to buy two cows which were worked at intervals across the plains when the horses tired out.

They travelled west in John R. Murdock's company. In this division, the immigrants were divided off into groups. Albert Schels drove the wagon for the Anderson party. They arrived in Salt Lake, September 27, 1862. There they were advised to go to southern Utah, so they left Salt Lake and went to Fillmore, Utah, where they remained a year. It had taken them six months to come from Copenhagen, Denmark to Fillmore.

From Fillmore, they moved to Deseret, Utah, where the Saints were building a dam and settling that country for farming. This was the time of the Civil War in the United States, and of Johnston's Army in Utah, and when wheat was five dollars a bushel and hard to secure at that, and the men had to take turns at night standing guard against the Indians in the Black Hawk Indian War. Under such conditions the family suffered great privations, living on grease wood greens and bran bread for several weeks. It became so trying to live in Deseret that the family went to Meadow, Utah. Later they moved to Dry Creek, two miles south of Meadow, where Mr. Anderson homesteaded a farm which in time made a very comfortable home,

Mrs. Anderson was very socially inclined. She loved company and often would invite large crowds to help her in drying fruit, sewing carpet rags, or quilting. At that time, she cooked a feast, and many carried home something for those who were not there. She encouraged the children to bring home company. It was a rare thing for them to sit down to a meal without a guest. Even tramps who asked for food at her door were not sent away empty handed. She would say, "As long as I have food, no one shall be turned away hungry,"

She was ever loyal to her husband and made his home a haven of rest for him. Being naturally a good housekeeper and homemaker, she kept her home pleasant for him. She had also the Scandinavian habit of being quite a servant to him, as we Americans would say. Every article of clothing was kept scrupulously clean, even his shoes would be ready when he wished them, and then with cheery conversation would assist him in dressing. They were very congenial and tenderly considerate of each other. She helped him in much of his planning, but never forced her opinion against his. He went on a mission to Sweden and returned home ill and died shortly afterwards, August 26, 1884. This left Mrs. Anderson a widow for over sixteen years.

Her church work consisted mostly in connection with the Relief Society. She was faithful in her duties as a teacher in this organization. In those days the teachers took donations of foodstuff as eggs, sugar, rice, vegetables, wheat, etc. Quilting and sewing were also often done in the homes by the Society. She delighted to have the sisters come to her place for this work. At that time, she always had something good for them to eat and drink.

Mrs. Anderson was very spiritual. After she left her relatives and home in the old country for the Gospel's sake, she many times said, "With a good husband and father and the Gospel for guidance the family would prosper and progress if they did their part." Many times she bore her testimony in fast meeting and there wouldn't be a dry eye in the house.

She had great faith in prayer and the healing power of the Priesthood. One time when all the men and grown children were away from home, four of her children were stricken with diphtheria. Then the fifth child showed signs of coming down. She turned to this child and said, "I must have help. You must go to bed, but before you do let us kneel down and pray and ask the Lord to send me help." In about a half hour after this prayer at three o'clock in the morning, Mrs. Knowles, a practical nurse, came with her son and said, "Sister Anderson, someone called me and said you needed me to come at once, and Alvin and I are here, and I see you do need us." In this epidemic, two of her children died.

Mrs. Anderson was a wonderful mother. She was a good executive and her children were obedient and were taught to work. Motherhood to her was one of the noblest peaks in the mountain range of character. After her husband died, her life was spent largely with her family, though she always maintained a home of her own. She never ceased to influence her children for good, and to advise and council them to the last. In fact, she fulfilled her patriarchal blessing for it promised that in this life, she would be loved and when she would pass on the other side, her children would praise and honor her for her wise council she had given them when alive.

Her daughter at Elsinore, Utah, had two very sick children. Mrs. Anderson in helping her nurse them contracted pneumonia and died February 11, 1901, and was buried by her husband in the Anderson family cemetery.

'Her children and her children's children
Cannot pay the debt,
For all the love that she has given,
But Thou, love's Lord, will not forget
Her due reward -- bless her
I pray, in Heaven. "

OSCAR ALFRED ANDERSON

1st child of Hakan Anderson & Mariane Marie Neilson

In the far off land of Denmark, on 21 October 1854, in the town of Copenhagen, a son came to bless the home of Hakan and Marianne Marie Neilson Anderson. He was given the name of Oscar Alfred. "I was born of Goodly parents," Nephi of Old said. Oscar could have and probably did say the same thing. His father had a speaking knowledge of 7 languages, had traveled in many countries as a valet to a nobleman. He was working as a boat inspector, when he was converted to the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

When Oscar was seven (7) years old, his father was given the choice of denouncing that dreadful religion or giving up his job. As a result in March of 1862, with his family, which consisted of Oscar, Nora, Haken, and Augusta, he joined other Latter-day Saints from close by and went to Liverpool, England, where they embarked on a large sailboat called the "Electric" with America as their destination.

They were on the water for 6 weeks. On arriving at Castle Gardens, New York, they boarded the train and went to Florence, Nebraska. They remained here long enough for Oscar's father to purchase two horses and two cows, which were used as oxen to relieve the horses, also for milk for the family and others.

Here the emigrants were organized into wagon groups. Albert Schels was leader over the group which included the Anderson wagon. Four and a half months later they arrived in Salt Lake City, in August 1862.

A miller was needed at Fillmore, as Haken had had this training, the family was sent by the Church Authorities to fill this position. They arrived here on 28 September 1862.

The dust from the mill caused Hakan, Oscar's father, to develop hay fever, so they were released and sent over on the Sevier River, just below Deseret to build a Dam and supervise getting the water out on the land to raise crops. When the water was put on the land minerals came up so thick it burnt the plants up. They were released. They then homesteaded a farm on Dry Creek, two miles south of Meadow. They lived in the Meadow Ward where they took an active part in church work.

During the Civil War in the United States, Johnson's Army was in Utah. Wheat was five (5) dollars per bushel, and couldn't be purchased at all in some sections of the country. In 1864 the family suffered for proper food living for a time on grease wood greens, Sego Lilly bulbs, with some bran bread, this lasted for a period of several weeks. H. William said he had heard his father tell about how hungry and weak he would get in plowing up the land. He would go to his father and ask if he could have a piece of bran bread, his father with tears in his eyes would say yes, go and get it.

Oscar, although he was only between 11 and 14 years old, took turns with the rest of the men and boys standing guard, both during the day and at night, while the Black Hawk war raged all over the southern part of Utah. This war lasted three years, 1865 to 1868.

The soil here at Meadow proved to be very good. With a lot of hard work it wasn't very long until they had a comfortable home. They raised many acres of sugar cane, which was made into molasses. Oscar would go with his father to peddle in towns of Sevier Valley, also at Milford and Frisco in Southern Utah and Pioche in Nevada. Will (Oscar's son) wrote, he heard his father with mirth tell while peddling in Salina in Sevier Valley, how two Danish girls thought to be having fun with him, wondering if he was as sweet as his molasses, joking about it between them. After delivering what they wanted, one can imagine how red faced they were when he thanked them in Danish. They quickly retreated out of sight.

Oscar attended dances at Kanosh, where he met a very lovely young girl, Thirza Jane Lee. Finding they had much in common, they began courting and were married 28 May 1878.

They bought a home at Kanosh, where Oscar got a job in a harness shop with Halsey Kealso, making, repairing and selling harness and other products.

In 1881 Oscar's father's health began to fail, so it was necessary for Oscar to sell his home and move to the farm to take care of it for him, which he did until his father's death on 26 August 1884.

Oscar then homesteaded a ranch near by at Dry Creek. They had seven lovely children born to them, Mary Elizabeth, Oscar Alfred, Haken William, Joseph Doyle, Dennis Marion, Harriet Elnora, and Thirza Lavinie.

On 16 July 1894 Oscar's beloved wife, Thirza Jane, is called home, leaving him with his small family, the eldest 15 and the youngest 2 years and 6 months. His sister Nora took the youngest, Thirza Lavinie, to raise. Elizabeth, with the help of the others and their father took care of themselves.

Dennis says he remembers when he was about 10, his father holding the bridle on the horse he was breaking. When he got situated he would call to his father to let the horse go, his father wouldn't until the horse lost some of his fight, showing the love and concern his father had for him.

In the spring of 1902 Oscar was called on a mission. The people must have held him in high esteem, the Mutual of Meadow had a party where they collected $61.00 to help him on his mission. His friends in Kanosh held a dance in his honor and gave him $19.90. His brother John and wife Alice got up a supper at the farm, 175 persons were in attendance.

On 29 May 1902, he stopped in Manti and had his wife sealed to him.

3 June 1902, he was set apart for his mission and also ordained a seventy by Elder Hans M. McMurrin. After his week in Salt Lake City at the mission home, he with other missionaries went to Chicago, Illinois. Visited in Chicago, then was sent to Indianapolis, for his mission work.

Oscar spent two years in the mission field. He met Mary Jane Chittock while here. After his return home he sent for her, and they were married in the Manti Temple, 19 July 1905. Everyone called her Aunt Jennie.

Lived on his farm until 1920, when he moved into the northeast part of the town of Meadow, where he worked in the co-op store. He died 30 November 1922 and is buried at City Creek, in the Anderson Cemetery.

(Written by granddaughter Golda Anderson Adams.)

Taken from his father's history, Oscar's Diary, kept while he was on his mission, William Anderson's story of his father he started, talks with Dennis Marion Anderson. Paragraphs Sylvia A. Hunt wrote.

Temple Index records, Oscar Alfred Anderson baptized 15 May 1854, by Benjamin H. Robinson, confirmed by the same person. Ordained a Deacon 2 Feb 1868, by his father Haken Anderson. Married Thirza Jane Lee 28 May 1870, by Hyrum Bennet, Justice of Peace. Endowed and sealed to his parents 11 Nov 1896 in Manti Temple.

CATHERINE ELNORA ANDERSON ROSS

2nd Child of Hakan Anderson and Mariane Marie Nielsen

The following is a short narrative of her life as she wrote it herself.

I can't remember exactly how old I was when my people joined the Church, but Father was a member three years before Mother was. When Missionaries came to the house, I was old enough to know wo they were and still remember their names. Brothers, Amasa Lyman, John VanCott, and Benjamin Cluff, and they were entertained by my parents very often.

I was six years old on the 9th of January 1862 and we left Copenhagen for America on the 1st of April of the same year. I can't remember how we left, or anything until we got on the ship. Father carried me and when he put me down to walk, I sat right down and wouldn't budge, so he had a job on his hands of carrying me all day. When it came night I wanted to go home. Father said, "This is our home." For a long time of course I was not satisfied and I must have been a very unruly girl.

Father became a great friend of the Captain and was placed in charge of the Scandinavian division of the ship. I recall several times when Father took me with him to dine with the Captain. I remember the sickness of my mother's baby girl. She was nearly two years old and her name was Augusta. She died and was buried in the ocean. I didn't seem to sense the terribleness of it, but the Captain pleased Mother by making a little coffin for it. My brother Oscar tried to impress me with the death and burial, but I said, "Well that's all right, isn't it?"

There was a lady gave me a nice wool jacket and when on deck one day Mother was feeling so good over our escape thus far from the lice that was tormenting the people; when she looked at my jacket, it was covered with them. She jerked it off and without thinking threw it in the ocean. I started after it in great haste, crying because my jacket was lost, but that was the last of the pests.

One morning when we got up everyone was cleaning up in their best clothes. I wanted to know why, and Mother said she would show me something in a few minutes, but I didn't wait, I rushed on deck and saw what she said would be beautiful, and it will never leave my memory. The sight of the beautiful Land. Oh, the Joy! I cannot forget.

The next I remember was in New York, and we were by a church. We sat down to rest but the policeman would not let us sit there but ordered us on. I can't remember any more until we got to Florence, Nebraska.

The wagons and ox teams were ready to take us on our journey across the plains. When we had traveled many days we saw Indians which frightened us very much. I was curious to see a dead Indian hanging in a tree, for I knew that was the way they buried their dead. I saw one, he was wrapped in a red blanket.

The next thing of interest was the crossing of the Platte River. It was necessary for the men to carry the ladies over. When Father started with Mother I let out a scream, because the river looked so wicked to me. The teamster, Brother Albert Shales, quieted me some, but no sooner had he pacified me until Father slipped and fell with Mother, but soon recovered himself. Nothing much impressed me after that until we reached Fillmore. The people we met there were Brothers Joseph and Henry Giles, the great grandfather of Senator William H. King. Brother Giles was so kind to us children and patted me on the head which won me over. Brother Henry had a little brass bucket of lovely peaches which he gave us. Then we were soon given a place for a home. The house is still there on Main Street, only one block from the old State House.

The following was written by Wanda Winget Johnson:

Aunt Nora and Uncle Andrew lived in Joseph and ran a grocery store. I remember my mother telling me about working in the store and also of helping Uncle Andrew with the milking of cows.

Aunt Nora and Uncle Andrew had no children of their own, but when Grandmother Anderson died, they took Mother into their home and raised her as their own. When Mother married and moved to Monroe, Aunt Nora built her a home there and moved over to be near her. She was just like a grandmother to all us children. She always had a treat for us after school.

She took in boarders and was a wonderful cook. I remember how she liked to go up the canyon on picnics and always had cookies and etc for us children.

Mother said many times what a good home she had and that she had only one regret and that was, even though she had brothers and sisters she was raised as an only child. And she said she would never raise one child alone. You all know she stuck to that promise as there are ten of us living children to prove it.

To me Aunt Nora was a lovely lady. A joyous and happy person, one we can all be proud to call our Aunt.

Aunt Nora died 20 November 1926 at the age of 70.

HISTORY OF HAKAN JULIUS ANDERSON

Hakan Julius Anderson, the third child of Hakan and Mariane Marie, was born four months after his parents had been baptized. He was three and a half years old when they left his birthplace, Copenhagen, for Liverpool on their way to America. At the age of sixteen, Hakan went with his father to work on the Union Pacific contract to lay tracks from Leamington to Frisco, Utah.

Hakan married Sarah Elizabeth Barney at Dry Creek Meadow, Utah, November 27, 1881 at the Anderson home and following the wedding they were honored by a dinner at the Barney home and the town enjoyed their wedding dance. They lived at Dry Creek for three years and rented the family farm. While there Sarah Evaline and Ella Matilda were born. When Sarah's father, Walter Turner Barney, was called by the Church to move to Arizona, Hakan purchased the Barney place in Kanosh and he engaged in the sheep business and farming. February 27, 1888, Mary Arrilla was born. Two years earlier on February 10, 1886, Hakan and Sarah had gone to the St. George Temple where they had received their endowments and had had Eva and Ella sealed to them.

The Barney family was happy with their new location in Arizona and when the sheep business became discouraging, Hakan and Sarah decided to leave Utah for Arizona. They went by way of Lee's Ferry. They had a light wagon with a stove in it for the family and two heavier wagons loaded with food, supplies, and personal belongings. They arrived at Solomonville, Arizona, December 31, 1888, where the Barney ranch was. Their next move was to Pima, February 1, 1889. Pima was fifteen miles down the Gila River. Hakan had purchased 160 acres of land on which there was a crude one room house in the midst of mesquites. He now chose to freight for eight years from Wilcox to Globe to get money to build a house and buy more land and during this time dug mesquites and farmed as he could.

Two years after their arrival in Arizona,

Elnora Juliet was born January 21, 1891 and Laura Jane in June 1894. It was six years since they had left Utah and they could now build a brick home and be more comfortable. Hakan made a trip to Utah in 1896 where some of the other members of the Anderson family in Utah joined him in doing temple work. Two years later when their sixth child was born it was a baby boy they named Hakan Walter. Their home was happier than ever now.

In 1902 Hakan became a partner in a dairy business with William Arthur Lines. The first wedding of one of their children took place the 12th of October 1902 when Eva married Arthur Lines and moved to Clifton where the dairy was operating. Hakan sold his interest in the dairy in 1905. Their family circle was complete when Almon Guy was born May 24, 1905. At this time Sarah was forty-four years old. To commemorate the event in the fall Hakan and Sarah went to the Portland Exposition. Ella Matilda and Isaac Blake accompanied them and on the return trip this young couple were married in the Salt Lake Temple. In 1906 Hakan went into the dairy business at Globe with his new son-in-law, Isaac.

The Smithville Extension Canal was begun in 1909. October 7, 1909 Mary Arrilla married Joseph A. Farley in the Salt Lake Temple. Both Arrilla and her father entered land under the new project. Nora graduated from the Gila Academy in 1912 and each of the younger children also graduated from this Church school. Laura Jane married Ben Blake in the Salt Lake Temple June 7, 1916. Two years after Nora graduated from Tempe Normal she went on a mission to the Northern States. One month after his graduation from Gila, Walter went to the same mission as Nora, the 24th of June 1918. True to his birthright he gave valiant service to the Master. October 31, 1918 Walter died when he was twenty years and five months old. He became ill with Spanish Influenza, but in a few days had pneumonia. This was during the period of the First World War when the Flu took such a heavy toll. He and Nora had labored together at Milwaukee, Wisconsin. She was with him when the Lord suffered angels to bear his spirit home.

His loss was keenly felt by each member of the family. His body was shipped home accompanied by Nora. An open air funeral was held at the Pima Cemetery November 6, 1918 where his body was interred. It was a beautiful tribute to a wonderful son and brother.

The dairy in Globe had been sold. The farm was rented after Walter's death. Two sons-in-law, Isaac and Ben Blake, were the renters for three years. By now it was a large farm with a beautiful home, orchard, garden and farm buildings. During the years Hakan had added considerable land to the original purchase. Hakan had prospered. He had branched out in his interests with stock in the Lines Brothers Mercantile Store and ownership of the Pima Drugstore. He was commonly known by all as H. J. Anderson and was counted on as a generous contributor to all worthy causes. Hakan and Sarah moved into a new home they had built in the town of Pima. It was a lovely home with a corner location and a porch from which they could watch the people in the community come and go. They loved to travel and took frequent trips.

Nora was the valedictorian of her class at the BYU when she graduated in 1920. Sarah and Hakan shed proud tears as they shared in this occasion. She was the first girl to be valedictorian at the Y. After teaching school the next year at Gila, Nora married Ray J. Davis June 8, 1921 and later lived in Pocatello, Idaho most of her married years. She was the only member of the family to leave Arizona permanently.

Sarah fell and broke her hip February 10, 1928. She died of complications March 7, 1928 and was buried at the Pima Cemetery. Hakan continued to live in the family home. His daughter, Laura, who was living in Tucson with her husband, Ben, and baby daughter sold their home and moved to Pima to make a home for Hakan.

Three months after the death of Sarah, Elizabeth Layton went back to Washington, D. C. where Guy was still in law school at George Washington University and they were married.

Hakan's health seemed to be quite good but an attack of pneumonia proved fatal on the sixth of June 1929. All of his family were at his bedside before his passing except his son, Guy, who arrived soon after from Washington, D.C. The funeral service was a beautiful tribute to this friendly, generous, and noble man. It was held Sunday the ninth of June 1929. At the time of his passing his posterity numbered twenty-one including one great-grandchild.

Hakan had forged a prominent place in Pima, a community in which his family had received good schooling and had been surrounded by other Mormons whose goals like his and Sarah's was to provide for their families the best training and environment that their early sacrifices had prevented them from having for themselves. They believed in the saying "By their fruits ye shall know them" and did all they could to inculcate in their children the qualities that would bring forth good fruit.

BIOGRAPHY OF WILDA JOSEPHINE ANDERSON WOODARD

Wilda Josephine Anderson was born at Fillmore, Millard County, Utah, on the 8th of April 1863. She was the daughter of Hakan and Mary Ann Marie Nielson Anderson, being the fifth child in a family of eleven. Her parents had embraced the Gospel in Denmark and came to this country the fall before Wilda's birth, settling in Fillmore.

In 1864 the Anderson family moved to Deseret, Utah and remained there until Wilda was about five years old. At this time they moved to Meadow, Utah, where the children started in school. Two years later Mr. Anderson took up a homestead which was located a mile and a half south of Meadow, at a place called Dry Creek. In time this proved a very comfortable home. Wilda and the other children walked from Dry Creek to Meadow to school. One winter they were snow-bound, so Mr. Anderson hired a teacher to come to the home and give the lessons. In these early schools each child had to furnish his own equipment--books, pencils, paper, etc. The schools were not graded. The children met in one room and took turns reciting. Their advancement was reckoned by the number and types of books that were completed. The school year was an average of seven months.

While residing at Dry Creek, Wilda was baptized a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Throughout her life she proved allegiance to that church by her actions and works, being President of Primary 11 years, teaching in Sunday School, serving as first counselor or President of Relief Society for many years. She was Secretary of the first Young Ladies Mutual Improvement Association in Kanosh, Utah.

At the age of seventeen, Wilda went to Fillmore and stayed with Almon Robinson and wife. Here she attended high school for nearly seven months. Her father, taking over the Coop Store at Kanosh, wrote for Wilda to come and help him in the business. For about two and one-half years she was a clerk there.

On October 18, 1882, Wilda was married to David Wilson Woodard. The ceremony was performed at the Anderson home in Kanosh, during the afternoon, Bishop A. A. Kimbal officiated. Immediately following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Anderson gave a wedding supper at which one hundred and fifty persons were seated. After the banquet, toasts were given, and the presents opened. In the evening a grand ball was held in honor of the bride and groom. The wedding was celebrated far and near as everyone admired and loved Wilda.

She continued working in the store as Mrs. Woodard, and the next spring Mr. Anderson was called to go on an European Mission, so the management of the store was left entirely to her. Wilda liked business; the active life and the feeling of really accomplishing something appealed to her. For this reason she was a successful business woman, sending what profit she made to her father, practically keeping him. He labored in Denmark first, then was transferred to Sweden. Ill health overtook him, however, and he returned to Utah after about one year of labor in the mission field. As his health did not improve at home, he was forced to give up the store shortly after his return.

When Wilda and Wilson were married, they planned that as soon as they had enough money they would make a trip to St. George and go through the Temple to receive their endowments and be sealed. They waited one and one-half years for finance, then they went on less than they had ever had, traveling by wagon, a four-day trip. They had five dollars in money and a few sacks of flour, which they tried to sell all along the road, being unsuccessful until they reached St. George where they could have sold twice as much.

On the first of December, 1884, their first child was born, David Wilson, Jr. They continued to live at Kanosh for some time then moved to Dry Creek where they remained until about 1889. Wilson took up the sheep business and was away at the herd most of the time. While taking the sheep through Elsinore one day, he decided that would be a good place for his family to live, so he stopped and bought a lot and house, then wrote to tell Wilda he would be over at a certain time to move her to Elsinore. At that time, Elsinore was looked down on as if that were the last place on earth to live. Some of the visiting Brethren were present when she received the letter and they said, "Why goodness, what have you folks done that you have to move over there?"

Soon after Wilda and the three children were settled in their new home, Wilson returned to the sheep herd. Such a sudden change from outside activity did not fit a woman of Wilda's type, and she began to plan something to do that would keep her busy and also help with the finance. She decided a millinery shop would be best and had a little room put up on the northeast corner of the lot. In order to stock the shop fashionably and with a good quality of hats, Wilda made a trip to Salt Lake City and took a three weeks course at the Parish Millinery. This enabled her to purchase material through them. She fashioned her own hats completely or merely trimmed the shapes. A good part of each day was spent in the little shop; however, she prepared the meals and directed the housework. After the business was well established she kept hired help in the home. Her millinery reputation spread throughout the countryside. Women came from all the surrounding towns to buy their hats at Mrs. Woodard's shop. Before holidays, she would seldom get a wink of sleep for two or three days. As proof of her success the little shop remained open for eighteen years and then was closed because of plans to change their residence. However, it took years for these plans to materialize. Meanwhile, a sugar factory started up in the vicinity and Wilda opened her house to boarders, providing for eight to ten and sometimes more, besides her own family. She was an excellent cook and her table was spread in banquet style three times a day.

During her life span at Elsinore she gave birth to seven children and this made a large happy family of ten children, three boys and seven girls. In the early part of the twentieth century, Wilson took up a homestead at Widtsoe, Garfield County, Utah, where he became Director of an experimental dry farm project sponsored by Utah Agricultural College at Logan, Utah. Wilson built a one-room log house and for a number of years moved the family back and forth to Elsinore by wagon. Each Spring would call for the move to Widtsoe after the children had advantage of school in Elsinore. About 1913 they left Elsinore entirely and made permanent residence at Widtsoe, and so, after middle age, Wilda went as a pioneer into a new country and helped build a new home.

She died at the home of her daughter, Mabel, in Panguitch, Utah, on September 12, 1942.

In summary, she had a radiant personality emanating tranquility and endurance, with a grand generous soul. She was resourceful and courageous, an excellent cook, an expert seamstress and milliner, a capable organizer and business woman. She was a pioneer, a good listener, a devoted daughter, wife and mother. She believed strongly in education, with a special leaning toward teaching, so that four of her eight living children taught school. (Her husband and son, Clyde, served on the School Board of Trustees.) Her children also reflected her business ability by being secretaries--one son became Captain in the Merchant Marines, and the eldest daughter was a fund-raiser in campaigns for public and private buildings throughout the entire United States, sometimes directing as many as 40 workers. The eldest son served a mission in Sweden. For many years Wilda suffered extreme pain with sciatic rheumatism, but she was a lover of life and lived it abundantly with an understanding heart. She never lost interest in life or what was going on in the community, state, or world. Her motto through life was "Never be idle, but make every moment count." She believed in training the hands as well as the head. As I contemplate her outstanding life, I think with the immortal Shakespeare - "To thine ownself be true; and it must follow as the night the day, thou canst not then be false to any man."

HISTORY OF BETSEY
MARYANN (ANNIE) ANDERSON ROSS

by
Marie Ross Butcher

Betsey Maryann (Annie) Anderson was born 31 August 1865 in Deseret, Millard County, Utah. She was the daughter of Hakan Anderson and Mariane Marie Nielsen. Her father, Hakan, was born 4 May 1822, in Horrod, Kristanstag, Sweden. Her mother, Mariane Marie, was born 7 May 1833 in Birkerod, Frederesksburg. Annie's parents were married 14 September 1853 in Copenhagen, after which they learned of the Gospel of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and became converts. They had four children before they embarked on a large sailboat called the "Electric," and set sail for America. These children were Oscar Alferd, Hakan Julias, Cathrine Elnora, and Augusta Mary. Augusta Mary died en route and was buried at sea.

The family traveled west in John R. Murdock's Company. Albert Schels was over the wagons of the Anderson party. They arrived in Salt Lake City, September 27, 1862 and were sent to Fillmore. From Fillmore they moved to Deseret, where the saints were building a dam and settling that area for farming. Other children came until their family numbered twelve children, including the one who died at sea. Wilda Josephine was born in Fillmore, Millard County, Utah; Betsey Maryann was born in Deseret 31 August 1865, in Deseret, Millard County. Two more children, Mary Elizabeth, and Joseph Jon, were born in Deseret. The family moved to Meadow, Millard, Utah in 1869, and the rest of their children were born there: Albert William, John Edward, and Evaline. They belonged to the Meadow Creek Branch of the Church.

Betsey Maryann went by the name of Annie. Her first school was in a large log room which had been planned and built by the community for all public gatherings, including church services and school. It had long oblong windows and a large fireplace in the north end by which it was heated. It was lighted by tall tallow candles in holders along the wall. The second school she attended was a two-story brick building.

Primary was organized by Eliza R. Snow and Zina D. Young, so Annie went to Primary in the log school room also.

Her mother was a trained cook and dress-maker, so she was taught these things. She was also taught to cure and cook meats efficiently. She helped in the fields, gathering cane for the making of molasses.

The family suffered great privations during the Civil War, and also from the Black Hawk Indian war much more close at home. They lived on greasewood greens and bran bread for several weeks. Later they moved to Dry Creek, two miles south of Meadow where her parents homesteaded a farm upon which in time they built a very comfortable home. Annie's mother was socially inclined, loved company, and would often invite large crowds to help her in drying fruit, sewing carpet rags, or quilting, as was the custom in those days, making a party of some necessary task. The children were invited to come, and were taught to do these things. The day's work would end in a big feast with happiness in that home.

Annie was thus taught to be a good house-keeper and homemaker. In growing up she loved to go to the church, parties and dances. Tickets for the dances were potatoes, squash, wheat, or whatever was in season. The times were hard and many times they went barefooted. They made their own cloth from wool and home-grown cotton, washed, carded, spun and woven by their hands.

One day a good-looking boy, George Lewis Ross, came to their house with a rooster.

"I found this rooster while I was herding cows in the hills. This was the closest house, so I thought it must be yours," he said.

"Young man," Annie's father said. "You are an honest boy, so when my pullets grow up

I will give you one."

In later years Annie married that boy, who was three years older than she was, having been born April 30, 1862. Sometimes he teased her, saying: "I got you for a rooster."

Annie grew up at the Dry Creek farm. Her sister Nora married Andrew Ross, a brother to Lewis, and they made their home in Joseph, Sevier, Utah. Lewis was working for his brother, driving cattle to market in Salt Lake City. It took one month to make the trip. Annie was working in the different organizations of the Church, was faithful and prayerful, so in that way she was preparing herself so that she would be worthy to go to the Temple. She went to Joseph to work in the store belonging to her brother-in-law and her sister, Andrew and Nora Ross. There the love of Annie and Lewis ripened and they were married in the St. George Temple May 13, 1885, for time and all eternity.

From St. George they went to Meadow, where they were given a big wedding reception and dance. William H. Stott had built a big new barn and over the feed stalls was a large hay loft which made a fine place for dancing. The wedding dance of Annie Anderson and Lewis Ross was held in this barn loft. Mr. Stott had a small Kimball organ which was lifted to the loft by many willing hands. Mr. Stott also played the organ and he was accompanied by Hyrum Adams playing the violin, so excellent music was furnished. They left Meadow and went to Joseph, where Andrew and Nora gave them another reception, the biggest one given so far in Joseph. Part of the top of the wedding cake is still in the keeping of the author.

Lewis and Annie bought a five-acre block in Joseph where they built a two-room log house with a lean-to on the north, a big fireplace with a red rock hearth. The first year of their married life was spent on his brother Andrew's ranch in the mountains west of Joseph. They milked cows and Annie made cheese and butter for sale. Many people testified for many years what good cheese she made. She was outstanding in her cooking and loved to take food to those that were sick or hurt. The cakes she made were so beautiful it seemed desecration to cut them.

Annie and Lewis planted a big orchard and currant patch on their lot in Joseph, then added bees. A big garden was a necessity and the beautiful, straight rows were a joy to see.

As the garden and the currant patch prospered, the children came along. It was the duty of the older children to tend the younger ones while the sisters of the town picked currants on shares. One day one of the little ones wandered over to the beehives and poked a stick into one. Annie saw him (Ab Ross, a nephew) and put him into a currant bush to brush the bees off. They attacked her instead and she was stung by the whole hive. She was so ill nobody thought she could live, and she was very sick for a long time. The townspeople fasted and prayed for her recovery. The author, the oldest girl, remembers seeing people around her bed and out in the yard praying and wanting to help. The doctor said she was saved by a greater power than his. She was able to continue her work and child-bearing. She and Lewis were the parents of twelve children, all born in Joseph, Sevier County, Utah.

In about the mid-1920's Annie became interested in genealogy. A man came to fix her sewing machine. He was Swedish and they talked about Sweden. She remarked that she would like to get some of the names of her father's people and he said he would see about getting some. She thought no more about it until some time later a lot of names came to her from Sweden. She was real sick when the names came, but when Josie told her about the arrival of the names she got better rapidly and took them to a Swedish lady in Monroe, Utah, who helped her to put them on family group sheets and send them to the Temple for clearance. She and Lewis went to the St. George Temple, got an apartment, and stayed a month or two and did the temple work for these ancestors.

After the death of her husband, Lewis, May 3, 1933, Annie went to California and visited with her daughter Melba. Her brother, Hakan's son Guy, took her to Arizona to visit with her relatives. She returned to Joseph and after a rest she visited in Idaho with her sister Mary and her niece Nora.

She had names in the Manti, Salt Lake, and Logan Temples and when she visited her children near these temples the names were there for her to do. She was working in the Logan Temple and staying with her daughter Josie when she took sick with her last illness. Josie and her husband, Bruce, gave her such sweet, tender care that they earned the gratitude of all the other children who are grateful also to Nora and Denzil, with whom she lived much of her widowhood and who gave her their whole-hearted love. The author, Marie, went to help Josie with her care.

As they said one of their prayers in her behalf, she said: "Oh, help me to get well so I can finish my work."

"Mother, have you some names in the temple to do?" I asked.

"Yes, I have," Mother replied.

"I'll see to it that they get done," I promised.

Mother gave that sweet smile of hers and said: "God bless you all."

Her night was restful and she seemed much better the next day. I had young children at home and took the opportunity to go and take care of them, get caught up on my washing and ironing and other necessary things before I went back, but Bruce called me early the next morning, which was January 8, 1948.

"Marie, Mother is done," he said.

She was buried in the Joseph cemetery January 12, 1948, beside her husband, Lewis, our father.

Our mother, Annie Anderson Ross, is survived by a large posterity. Of the twelve children she bore, seven are still living at this writing (June 1969). There are thirty-six grandchildren, one hundred and thirty great grandchildren, and forty great-great grandchildren, numbering two hundred and six in all.

Our mother was a sincere, humble person, beloved by all who knew her, faithful to the Lord all her life. She was a quiet person, never seeking worldly honors nor fame, but we feel that she has been welcomed and hailed by the thousands for whom she has been the instrument of their release and progression through temple and genealogy work, and she is a noble example to us, her descendants.

The work she began is being continued and magnified as was promised on her death-bed.

LIFE HISTORY OF
MARY ELIZABETH ANDERSON MAGLEBY

When Hakan and Mary Ann Marie Neilson Anderson accepted the Gospel in far-away Denmark, it marked the beginning of a new life for them. Here-to-fore Hakan had been employed in a responsible, well paying job as manager of all shipping at the port of Copenhagen and the family had prospered, but with the coming of the missionaries all this was changed. When word got around the dock that Hakan Anderson had joined the much hated and feared Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, he soon lost his job and found it difficult to find other employment, however he desired very much to come to Zion and finding his savings sufficient, he booked passage to London and thence to America for his family. During the six weeks voyage by sailing vessel baby Augusta became ill, died and was buried in the ocean. Hakan and Mary Ann and three children arrived in New York, went by railroad to Omaha, Nebraska, then by oxteam to Utah. Here, after a brief rest, they were sent by Pres. Brigham Young to Fillmore, Utah where Hakan was to manage a grist mill. This he did for a year until the dust gave him asthma and he had to give up his job and move his family to Deseret, Utah. Here it was that Mary Elizabeth was born on October 24, 1867.

This was a very difficult time for the Saints in Utah. The Civil War had just come to a close, and Johnston's Army was threatening their lives. The Indians, too, had been giving a great deal of trouble to the settlers in Southern Utah and guards were stationed each night to protect the saints from them. Food, too, was scarce, and the Anderson Family along with others lived for several weeks on bran bread and greasewood greens.

Mary was the seventh child of a family of 11 children. So, very early in life she learned to share with her brothers and sisters in the home, and learned to work for what she needed. While Mary was very young, the family moved to Meadow, where they homesteaded a farm.

Mary started to school in Meadow but then the family moved to Kanosh, where her father became manager of the Co-op store, she changed schools and continued on, finishing the 5th Reader under teacher, Benjamin Goddard. During the summer Mary assisted her father in the store. The Indians were still troublesome and Mary was warned that she must bar the door of the store when any Indians came around, but Mary was not afraid and was able to make friends with them.

Mary still had a desire for more education so she accepted a job at Sulferdale working for the wife of the Mine Supt. Here she did housework and sewing. She was able to earn enough money to put her through two years at Millard Stake Academy providing she also worked for her board and room while in school. The first year she lived in the home of President Ira Hinckley, who was then Pres. of the Millard Stake. Mary was happy there until Pres. Hinckley asked her to be one of his wives, but Mary felt that he was too old for her and besides that, he already had children Mary's age, so she turned him down. The next year Mary lived at the Broadbent Home and finished her schooling at the Millard Academy.

Mary's desire now was to continue her schooling at the B. Y. U. So, she again accepted employment in Sulferdale, saving money carefully until she had enough to start school. With the further help of borrowed money, Mary was able to complete two years of study at the B. Y. U. during which time she prepared herself for a teaching career. While a student at the B. Y. U. she was chosen to take part in a summer production of a Shakespearean Drama in the old Salt Lake Theater. With Eliza Magleby (an aunt) for her companion, she went to Salt Lake and lived during the summer rehearsal time. Both found work in a home at Fort Douglas doing sewing to pay their expenses.

Mary finished her two years of study under Pres. Karl G. Maeser and had as schoolmates, Richard and Amy Brown Lyman, Adam S. Bennion and Jacob Magleby. Jacob was her escort and suitor during part of this time and desired that they become engaged, but Mary would not consent to an engagement until she had repaid the money she had borrowed to attend school. Mary started her teaching career in the Provo City Schools, later teaching a year in Elsinore where she lived with her sister Wilda and assisted her in her millinery shop making hats. Another year she taught in Joseph or 'Jo Town' as it was commonly called. Here she lived with her sister Norah. While teaching, Mary paid back the borrowed money. After 4 years of being unofficially engaged, she and Jacob decided to get married. And so on Sept. 9, 1896 they were sealed man and wife in the Salt Lake Temple by Pres. John Winder.

They made their home in Monroe, Utah-- living in a house just west of the old Erickson home. Mary and Jacob both taught school that first year to help meet expenses. Their first son Rulon was born the next year so Mary gave up her teaching and turned to homemaking at which she became very efficient. As other children came along, Mary gave them her love and care and taught them the gospel truths. A new large brick home was built in 1897 and was much enjoyed by all.

In 1907, Jacob was called on a mission to California where he served honorably for two years. Funds were needed to keep her husband in the mission field, so Mary opened her house to school teachers who needed board and room.

Jacob returned home in 1909 and that year a baby son, Everett Dean, was born, living only a short two weeks.

Jacob became County Superintendent of Schools in Sevier County soon after his marriage and served nine years. He later was cashier at the local bank, still later manager of the local creamery. He was also Bishop of the Monroe South Ward. When General Authorities of the church were traveling to conference or on business trips, they often made overnight stops at the Magleby home, where they enjoyed the hospitality and Mary's wonderful cooking.

There was lots of fun and noise in the home, too. In the front parlor there was an organ and a player piano and the youngsters kept them going constantly.

Mary became a member of the Stake Relief Society Presidency and served faithfully for many years. In company with Sr. Lee, they made many trips to visit outlying wards. Of course, the trips were made in a white top buggy and Sr. Lee usually drove the team of horses. One day the horses became upset by the horseflies which were unusually thick and biting like mad and ran away. When the ladies finally got them under control and came home the horses had splintered the dash board in the buggy. Another time Mary and Eva Lines and several of their children were driving from Joseph to Monroe. At the top of the hill a tug slipped off letting the buggy loose and it started rolling backwards downhill, the ladies were frantic for fear the buggy would tip over so they tossed the children over the side into a clump of sagebrush. However the buggy came to a stop without damage and a passerby caught the horse and all was well again. Even the youngsters were not hurt seriously.

In 1919, Mary and Jacob decided that they would find better opportunities for their family in Idaho, so Jacob and Karl left home, came to Idaho and bought a farm at Sunnyside, where Sterling now lives.

Mary came to Idaho and fixed up the house so that Rulon, Karl, and Sterling could live in it and batch for themselves; then she and Jacob returned to Monroe until the following spring. When the time came to make the final move all the machinery, furniture, personal items and even the cows and horses were all loaded on a freight car and shipped by rail to Thornton. Sterling was given the honor of driving his mother and LaRue in the new family Ford. He arrived safely but according to his brothers the car was never much good afterwards.

The family worked hard in the summers clearing sagebrush, scraping the ground to even it up a bit, planting and harvesting; but in the winters it was school time and Mary moved to Rexburg so that Herbert, Sterling, and LaRue could finish High School and begin college.

After three years of schooling at Ricks College, the boys transferred to other schools and Mary stayed at home.

Mary was always active in Relief Society and for many years she served as Theology leader in the Archer Ward. She was also greatly in demand to give special lessons in other organizations. Mary and Jacob also served on the Genealogical Stake Board for many years.

They continued to live on the farm until 1938, when they sold their property to Sterling and moved into a very fine comfortable home previously purchased in Idaho Falls. At this time a Temple was being built in Idaho Falls and their one desire was to spend the rest of their lives within its sacred walls. But World War II came along and delayed the building of the Temple and by the time it was dedicated and ready for use, Jacob's health was so poor he could not attend. So Mary faithfully cared for her husband, putting aside her own desire to work in the Temple. Jacob developed Parkinson's Disease and finally passed away on March 14, 1946.

Mary's health was reasonably good until she was 75 years of age, after that she developed heart trouble as a result of chronic asthma as well as other serious complications. She continued to live in Idaho Falls for another year after Jacob's death, remaining active in the Relief Society of the 4th Ward as Literature Leader as long as her health permitted. She had many friends who visited her often and she developed quite a reputation for winning in playing chinese checkers.

In 1947 Mary moved to Salt Lake, staying with Karl and Ronella for a short time, then living with LaRue where she was cared for with love and tenderness until her death on March 5, 1949 at the age of 82 years. Funeral services were held in Salt Lake two days later, then she was brought back to Idaho Falls for additional services and burial beside her husband in Fielding Memorial Park.

Mary had many talents. She was a fine reader and an inspiring teacher. Her very special talent was in homemaking and she was known far and wide for her hospitality and excellent cooking. She never used a recipe but everything turned out just right. Her home was always clean and in order and she enjoyed company and visits from relatives. She taught her family correct principles and taught the gospel to them both by precept and example. She gave them a thirst for knowledge and a love for reading. She taught each of her family to be independent. She was a kind and loving mother and a beloved grandmother who always had cookies for hungry grandchildren.

HISTORY OF ALBERT WILLIAM ANDERSON

(The following are excerpts from notes taken as Uncle Albert reminisced about his beloved parents, his childhood and their home life.)

The first home they had in Meadow, Utah, was a log house with a dirt roof, one big room about 18 by 24 feet. Grandmother Anderson did her cooking in the fireplace. She used cast iron dutch ovens and cast iron pots. One of the favorite supper dishes of her children was heated milk poured over toasted bread. For breakfast she always prepared a hot bread and cooked cereal--cornmeal or ground wheat. Desserts which she prepared that were family favorites were bread pudding, danish pastry, molasses cake and made from tapioca and various fruits and spices. She always baked lots of bread for the family of nine.

This lovely gentle woman, who came here from a refined and attractive home in Copenhagen, first had as a dining table for her family, three planks, approximately one foot wide and six or eight feet long. Then later, Grandpa had a better table made of white pine. It was planed and was twelve feet long or more.

Grandpa raised sugar cane for molasses. They would haul the cane to the molasses mill, get the juice and then make the molasses after that. While the family lived at Dry Creek, Grandpa gathered up eggs, butter, cheese, etc. from neighboring farmers and took this to Pioche, Nevada, a mining town, a distance of 120 miles in a Bain wagon with two or four horses as needed. He eventually took contracts with dealers to furnish them with dairy products, live chickens, cheese, etc. He would put the butter (made by local women) in cold wet cloths and pack this in moistened green alfalfa. Grandma would make 50 or 75 pounds for such a trip. Sometimes they would put the butter in small kegs. They would pack the eggs down in the grain. Grandma also made for the market home-made preserves, using molasses in place of sugar.

Later, the Pioche trade slackened as the mining boom subsided. They moved the smelter to Frisco, some distance north of Pioche. Grandpa worked up a good business, contracting with many of the men. At times there were as many as three wagons for him to take, at which time the older boys would assist in driving. Sometimes there was a double deck carrier for the chickens, with grain below. They would have to stop an hour or so before sundown and turn the chickens out for something to eat. Then the chickens would come back into the coop to roost.

When the family first moved to the old Dry Creek Farm (1876),  $1\frac{1}{2}$  miles south of Meadow, Grandpa filed on 160 acres for a homestead. A home was not ready for the family, so Grandpa dug a huge cellar and Grandma cooked over an open fire out in the yard. She used a tripod over the fire. The boys usually had their bed in a wagon box and had ropes for bed spring, with straw ticks. The other beds were all in one room.

In 1882, Grandpa was called on a Scandinavian mission and the family moved back to Dry Creek Farm from Kanosh. Grandma now took the peddling wagon much the same route as Grandpa had -- taking fruit, vegetables, dairy products, etc. for the customers. It was a 60-mile trip to Frisco. This would take two days to go, a day to sell out and two days to return. One of the boys would go with her, and Grandma would always plan to knit stockings for the family as she rode.

Six months from the time Grandpa left for his mission, he returned home a sick man, with Bright's disease. He could do only light work after this and his activities were very limited.

Grandpa and Grandma were friends of the Indians and there was a large Indian camp within two miles, where lived Old Kanosh, chief of the tribe, When they had tribal gatherings there would be as many as a thousand Indians gathered for singing and dancing. Such celebrations would last as long as a week, and the dancing and singing would continue around the clock, night after night.

During the last months of Grandpa's life, he suffered severe and continuous pain. All of the last month before his death he was in bed, and the pain was almost unbearable. Grandma was constantly at his bedside, with her tender and loving nursing and devoted watch care. About a week before he passed away, he called each of his children to him for a father's blessing, which typifies his spiritual depth and his strong testimony. He prayed that his sons would honor the priesthood and that each child would live a good exemplary life among men. He passed away in 1884. The following summer Grandma Anderson, working with her two youngest sons, Albert and John, produced a beautiful wheat crop, but the chinch bugs came in and destroyed the entire crop. Grandma then bought some pigs and about Thanksgiving time they were killed, dressed, and she took them to Frisco for market. The next summer she had trials again when there was no water whatever at the homestead, so she took John and Mary up onto a ranch owned by Nora and Andrew Ross, and there this courageous and resourceful mother made a living by milking a herd of dairy cows and making butter to sell at Frisco.

In her later years, Grandma rented the farm out and moved to a little home in Elsinore, near her daughter, Wilda. One of the highlights in her life was a visit to Salt Lake City for General Conference. Albert came in from his work in Colorado and brought her to Salt Lake City, her first trip since she came here as an emigrant. She was deeply moved by this experience and shed tears of joy. Grandma loved the Church and treasured her membership. No matter how deep her trials, Grandmother was always patient and uncomplaining. She lived for her husband, children and the Gospel.

ALBERT WILLIAM ANDERSON
A BRIEF HISTORY OF HIS LIFE

Written in 1963 by
Clarice Stewart Anderson, His Wife

Ninety-two years ago in a quiet little village, Meadow, Millard County, Utah, a son was born May 11, 1871, to Marianne Nielsen and Hakan Anderson, their ninth child. He was blessed and given the name of Albert William Anderson.

Hakan and Marie (as her husband always called her) realized more and more that their small allotment of land in Meadow was not adequate to meet their fast growing family's needs. So Hakan filed on a homestead of 160 acres about two miles south of Meadow. Here he built a two-room house and began to clear and cultivate the land. This homestead became known as Dry Creek Farm. Here young Albert spent a happy childhood, grew up, and learned to work. He often spoke of his kind, loving parents, their good wholesome life and the happy times the children had together on the farm.

Albert was thirteen years old when his father passed away. This was a sad experience and naturally changed their way of life somewhat. Sometime afterwards, Brother Hinckley, the President of Millard Stake and a close friend of the Anderson family, hired Albert to help on his large farm near Fillmore. Living in this home was a rich experience, never to be forgotten. Close ties of friendship were formed between the Hinckley boys and Albert, lasting throughout their long lifetime. It was a lovely impressive thing to see their genuine affection for each other as they met often in Salt Lake City in their old age and recalled early experiences.

When Albert was about seventeen, he worked with his brother-in-law, Wilson Woodard, who was interested in sheep. Soon Albert was building a business for himself and diligently saved enough money to attend the Utah State Agricultural College at Logan, part of two years. This opened up a new world for him. He became extremely interested in the manual arts, drafting, welding, woodwork, etc. He took great pride in his work. Whatever he did must be done with precision. Throughout his lifetime here was a wealth of skills from which to draw.

While attending college he played football on the school team. This activity he enjoyed very much. He was a large, well-built man, six feet two inches tall, weighing about 200 pounds. He loved telling his children and grandchildren about the first real game his team ever played and scored. That was a game to be remembered--a great day for the school. His team won the game. He would chuckle as he reminisced about his football experiences. One of the little boys looked up at his grandfather, still a large man, and said, "Boy! I'll bet when Gramp hit that line, something happened."

He returned to the sheep business and became prominent as a buyer, seller and shipper in the sheep and wool industry. His territory extended into Arizona, Colorado, Nevada, Idaho, Oregon and Utah. He had charge of range and water development for livestock in southern Utah, with headquarters at Kanab. Here he met Clarice Stewart, whose home was in Kanab. Three years later he married this young lady. We both wanted a temple marriage, but it was unthinkable at that time for a young unmarried couple to travel unchaperoned, and temples were days and nights away when one traveled with a team and buggy. So we had a lovely wedding at home on 1 July 1904 with my family, relatives, and friends. Our bishop, Scott Cutler, performed the ceremony. Two weeks later, on July 13 our marriage was solemnized in the Manti Temple. My uncle, Moses Francis Farnsworth, who was at that time Clerk in the Temple for the Temple President, performed the ceremony. We purchased a home in Monroe, then one in Richfield. Albert continued in the sheep and wool business and was successful and happy.

Some years later he engaged in farming in Idaho. While we had our children in school at Provo he did a great deal of contracting and home building in the Provo area. With all this activity, he devoted much time to the Church which he loved. Twice he served as counselor in two different bishoprics. He was Sunday School Superintendent and held other responsible positions, including the YWMLA presidency. At one time it was the policy of the Church to call couples to do ordinance work in the temples. Albert and I, Clarice, served in this capacity for a three-month period in the temple at Logan, Utah, where we were living. Albert's sister Annie spent several weeks with us and I, Clarice, shall never forget how busy and happy this brother and sister were as they did work for their deceased ancestors.

Albert had the privilege of the acquaintance and association with several leading men in the Church. Perhaps two of these who impressed him most were President David O. McKay, who ordained him a Seventy (when the President was an apostle), and Apostle Melvin J. Ballard, who ordained him a High Priest. He felt highly honored and grateful for these personal contacts and special blessings.

In civic affairs, too, Albert made his contributions. A member of the school board, he was interested in employing better teachers and improving classrooms and equipment. He was always a hard worker and someone once said of him, "Wherever Albert Anderson has lived and worked, he left things better than he found them."

Approaching old age, arthritic pains were taking their toll, and a broken hip was also his lot. "This is the end of my usefulness," he told me. He felt sure that he could never get over it, but he did. Now we had a problem to solve. We realized some activity must be provided. To Albert, doing nothing was laziness, almost a sin in his way of thinking. When he grew stronger, his sons purchased a power saw and other tools and a shop was set up in the basement. Gradually his confidence was restored by doing many things. A neighbor would bring a chair to be mended and a little child, a tricycle to be put in order. This all helped, for he loved his friends and neighbors and was loved in return. He made many useful articles which he gave away as gifts, and how happy he was to do it. It was good to feel needed still. He made many beautiful articles as he worked in a leathercraft hobby and enjoyed sharing the finished product with loved ones.

A lover of good books, he read widely and kept informed on world affairs, especially in the development and construction of world projects and a particular interest in the industrial growth and progress of the western United States. He could intelligently discuss what was happening in many parts of the world. Our children made it possible for us to have several interesting trips. This was stimulating, interesting and informative. Whether he was buying a herd of sheep, taking a sightseeing trip around Manhattan Island or a boat trip to British Columbia, his keen enthusiasm for living and learning was an inspiration.

Albert and I, Clarice, had 55 years together. They were busy, happy productive years. Seven children were born to us, two of whom passed away in infancy. The five we have are men and women now, two sons and three daughters. They give freely of their time and talents as parents, homemakers, in Church positions, in the fields of medicine and dentistry, and in educational pursuits. We have eleven splendid grandchildren and Albert liked to say, "We have nine good grandsons for a baseball team and two lovely little granddaughters for cheerleaders."

Albert had a strong testimony of the Gospel and as long as he was able, he was always happy to be serving the Lord. He had a longer life than any of his father's children, nearing his 88th birthday. The very last evening of his life, his interest in everything about him was still evident. We had spent New Years Day with Vilda, Von and their children. As we drove home, someone suggested we drive a while. So Hayward, our grandson, drove up to an elevation overlooking Salt Lake City and far across the valley. It was a beautiful sight with all the Christmas lighting. Albert remarked, "This is a beautiful picture. You have been around the world, Hayward. How does this compare with what you have seen?" answered, "Well, Gramp, there is surely a lot in this world to see." "Well," said Grandpa, "I've just got to roll up my bed and take another trip." Next morning Albert was happy recalling the nice evening and mentioned the beginning of the New Year. At noon he was stricken and within four days had launched upon another trip, his last and most important one. Albert passed away in Salt Lake City, Utah, on January 5, 1959, at the close of a long, useful, colorful life. He was buried January 9, 1959, in the Salt Lake City Cemetery.

May the memories of Albert's industrious, useful, life ever be an inspiration to those who knew and loved him and to all of his descendants.

THE LIFE STORY OF
JOHN EDWARD ANDERSON

By Edna A. Carr
as related to her my members of her family and her own impressions of her father

John Edward Anderson, son of Hakan and Mariane Marie Neilson, was born in Meadow, Millard County, Utah on May 15, 1873. He was the 10th child born to this union. He was raised on a farm about 1/2 distant between Meadow and Kanosh, called Dry Creek Farm.

When he was about 7 years old he started school in Kanosh.

When John was 10 years old, his father passed away. This was a great sorrow to John, and it also left him with a lot of the responsibilities on the farm and the care of his mother. He was extremely devoted to his mother.

It was a familiar sight to see Grandmother Mariane and John on a wagon loaded with produce, heading toward Frisco or some other town where they would sell or trade their produce for necessary things they needed on the farm. On one such trip his mother fell against a rack and injured her hip - she was in great pain. John tried to persuade her to stay in Frisco, but she knew she must return to her farm. John stretched a sling of canvas across the wagon bed and with assistance laid his mother in it. Then they started their long journey home, across rough rocky trails. About 100 miles was the actual distance they had to go. To try to assure that his mother Mariane was as comfortable as possible, he walked along in front of the wagon and picked out a trail - removing as many rocks as possible to make the ride smoother.

On October 10, 1899 when he was 25 years old, he was called on a mission for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. His mission was in the Northern States, with headquarters at Indianapolis, Indiana. On February 11, 1901, just 16 months after he had left his beloved mother Mariane, she passed away. This was a great sorrow to John, but he finished his mission and returned home on October 10, 1901.

Between this time and the time he met and married his first wife there is little record. However, it is known that he traveled east several times to sell cattle and horses for a man from Kanosh.

On April 3, 1902, he married Alice Jenette Duncan of Meadow, Utah. They were married in the Salt Lake Temple. On March 5, 1903, a beautiful baby daughter, Alice, was born to them. The child was strong and healthy but the mother got blood poisoning after the birth and on March 12, 1903 when Alice was just one week old his beloved wife passed away. This was a severe blow to John.

He continued on with his work and working diligently in the Church. During the winter of 1904-05 he was called on a home mission to Holden, Utah, a small town about 25 miles from his home. While he was there he was invited to the Benjamin Stringham home during the last visit there and just a week before the end of his mission, he met Emma, who had been away from home for six weeks. They must have fallen in love at first sight, for after three dates, each a week apart, they decided to get married. On April 3, 1906 they started for Salt Lake City. They took a buggy as far as Leamington, which took nearly all day. Because of the wet muddy roads, when they arrived at Leamington they found out they would have to go to Delta and catch the night train or they wouldn't be able to be married until after conference had adjourned. So they went on - tired and wet - arriving only minutes before the train left. When they arrived in Salt Lake they were met by Emma's brother Ray, who was living in Salt Lake at that time. The next day, April 5, 1906, they were united for all time and eternity in the Salt Lake Temple.

Everyone over 14 years of age in the whole town of Meadow and some from nearby towns were invited to their wedding reception. They were served a full course dinner of roast beef, potatoes, gravy, vegetable, jams, jellies, pickled beets, etc. They werved 24 layer cakes besides the wedding cake. Oranges and bananas were served with the cake.

John and Emma lived on their farm at Dry Creek and in Meadow until after their first two children were born. Then they moved to Monroe, Utah in Southeastern Utah where John started a creamery which was operated for many years after he left there. They were happy in Monroe. Emma and John both worked in the church. John was President of the YMMLA as well as a Sunday School Teacher and Missionary President. In 1910 while they were still in Monroe, their third child was born,

In 1912 they moved to Clearfield, Utah where they purchased a fruit farm. They built a beautiful yellow brick home on their farm north of the town. While living here their fourth child and third son was born.

They didn't stay long in Clearfield. John wanted a larger farm and much farming land was available in Minidoka County in Idaho where a new dam had just been built. So after investigating the prospects, they made another move further north into Acequia, Idaho where they purchased a 100-acre farm.

On May 5, 1913, John was called to be the Bishop of the Ward (a position he served in for the next ten years). Emma was President of the Relief Society for nine years during the same time. While they were in these positions they were called upon many times to care for the sick and to take care of the dead by their ward, as well as non-members.

Soon after the war came the great depression. Many people were losing their homes and farms, banks were going broke, and people didn't know where to turn. John went to Oregon to see if he could find a home and farm there. While he was in Oregon the Rupert Bank went broke and he lost everything he had. Taxes were so high he couldn't keep the farm any longer. John was 50 years old and Emma 40, and they were compelled to make another move.

While they were in Idaho they had had six more children. Three died in infancy. Within the next few months they left Idaho and returned to Utah to a small mining town called "Ferron" near Castle Gate in Southeast Utah. Because of the scarcity of work and bad water (which made all the family ill) another move came. This one to Cedar City Valley in Southern Utah. John worked for wages or rented farms for several years until he finally got a tract of land on a sandy bench in a little ward called Enoch, north of Cedar City. Here he built a home. About four years later it burned to the ground. He purchased an old barracks and remodeled it and made a very liveable home for his family.

In the spring of each year, John and his four sons--Roland, Haken, B.J., and Bryant--would go to Nevada and operate a shearing plant. Emma and John would cook for the crew and the boys would shear the sheep, tromp wool, etc.

John enjoyed these years with his boys and the chance to be out in the open and working for himself. The many hard years had taken their toll. Although he enjoyed quite good health until the last year, he was a very active and energetic man.

On January 25, 1939 John was stricken with a heart attack and died at his home in Enoch. Most of his family and his beloved Emma were at his side. He was buried on January 28, 1939 in the family cemetery in Dry Creek - next to his wife Alice and his mother and father.

John Edward Anderson was a man of great faith and hope. Respected by all people who knew him and loved and adored by his family. He was not a man of wealth, as material things go, but he was always ready to lend a helping hand and give all he had to someone less fortunate than himself. He was a wonderful father to his family, never asking, always giving, always able to take a few minutes to counsel with his family, listening to their problems and helping them solve them.
