Olsen
Family

*I dedicate this work to the memory of my father
Rasmus Lauritzen, and especially to my mother, Dagmar Olsen Lauritzen, who for ninety three years kept the lines of communication open between family members in Denmark and in the United States.*

Agnes Lorenza Hansen 12-4-1879---9-4-1967

Lars Peter Olsen "Pete", son of Ole and Karen Frandsen, was born in Hojerup, Denmark. He had five brothers and five sisters. Pete immigrated to America in 1891 arriving in New York aboard the "Tingvalla". He was 19 years old when he and his brother Ole came to Nebraska to join their brother Anders who had come several years before. Pete worked at Louisville and Nehawka until he was able to acquire land to farm. He bought a farm 2 miles west of Weeping Water, where he lived for many years. On a trip to Omaha he stayed at a boarding house where Agnes Hansen worked. They were married on March 6th, 1903, and lived the rest of their lives in the Weeping Water area where they raised their daughter, Dagmar Kristine. A son Walter died at the age of 5 months and two baby girls died at birth. Both Pete and Agnes were baptised in the Lutheran church in Denmark, but attended and supported the Congregational church in Weeping Water. Pete made three trips back to his native Denmark to visit family, in 1900, 1923, and 1948.

Dagmar, daughter of Lars Peter and Agnes Hansen Olsen was born and raised at Weeping Water, Nebraska, where she graduated from high school in 1922. She attended the University of Nebraska, and Misner's School of the Spoken Word. She taught school at Laurel Hill country school before her marriage to Rasmus in 1926. Dagmar always enjoyed drama and was often called upon to give programs and readings. She was a loyal supporter of her church, First Congregational, U.C.C. in Weeping Water where she served for many years as Sunday School Superintendent. She served as secretary of the School Board for many years and was involved in many community projects. Dagmar learned to speak and write Danish as a child and used it all her life to keep in contact with family in her parent's and her husband's native land. Rasmus and Dagmar farmed for all of their married life. Five children, the joy of her life, were born to this union, Richard, Doris, Evelyn, Kenneth, and Alice.
